1. Heard all parties. It appears that after the transfer of the suit to D.R.T., Court Receiver has been discharged by the Presiding officer, D.R.T. and Court Receiver is directed to hand over suit securities to the officer of the bank who is the receiver appointed by the D.R.T. Since this is the direction given by the D.R.T., Court Receiver is bound by the same. He will therefore, hand over properties forthwith but will be at liberty to apply for the D.R.T. in so far his costs, charges and expenses are concerned.
